

Santa Barbara Bank & Trust Appoints Clarissa Rowe Relationship Manager in Monterey

MONTEREY, CA – (August 2, 2011) – Santa Barbara Bank & Trust (SBB&T) is pleased to announce that Clarissa Rowe has joined the Bank as a Relationship Manager in Monterey. A 20-year banking veteran, Rowe has successfully provided diverse financial solutions, unparalleled service and dedicated leadership in all aspects of retail banking. Prior to joining SBB&T, she was Branch Manager for Washington Mutual/JP Morgan Chase in Monterey. Rowe will work in SBB&T's Monterey branch at 495 Washington Street.

“Clarissa combines a high level of banking experience and expertise with the personal service that our clients find so valuable,” said Sue Burnham, Senior Vice President and Community Bank Regional Manager. “She is an active member of our community and we are fortunate to have a person of her caliber at the Bank.”

Rowe and her husband, Allen, are long-time residents of Monterey. She is a current member of the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce and served on the Board of the Pacific Grove Chamber of Commerce. Rowe was also a past Treasurer and Committee Chair of the Monterey Peninsula Chamber and past President and Treasurer of Soroptimist International.
